John M. Grubb has been preaching since 1970. All but twelve of those years have been in mission work. He spent ten years as a missionary in Taiwan. He is fluent in speaking Mandarin Chinese and can read and write Chinese. John has four children and five grandchildren.

He prepares and translates materials into Chinese that are used around the world. He has produced more than 180 video lessons in Chinese and dozens of video lessons in English. He also helps in producing radio lessons for broadcast in China.

Since 1985, John has made 46 mission trips and has traveled to 22 nations of the world. He also travels in the U.S. to report on his work as well as to conduct gospel meetings and to participate in lectureships, mission forums, and workshops. John is in his 37th year of working among the Chinese people. His work is under the oversight of the Chestnut Mountain Church of Christ in Braselton, GA.
