

God's All Sufficient Word

Intro:

1. God's word is sufficient for _____ and _____ —
2 Pet. 1:3.

Body:

- I. God's word is all-sufficient for life.
  - A. God intended for man to have a _____ life — Gen. 1:31.
  - B. God still intends for His children to have a good life —
Jn. 10:10.
  - C. It helps man obtain those general needs for the good life.
    1. It helps us obtain _____.
      - a. To love and to be loved is one of the greatest needs of man — 1 Cor. 13:1-3.
      - b. There is no greater example from which to learn love than God — 1 Jn. 4:9-10; Jn. 15:13.
        - (1) Through God's word we learn we are loved and how to love — Rom. 13:10.
    2. It helps us obtain _____ — Jn. 14:27; Phil. 4:6-7.
      - a. We need not be troubled — Rom. 8:28.
        - (1) God provides every need — Jas. 1:17.
    3. It helps us obtain _____.
      - a. Through joy — Phil. 4:4.
      - b. Through _____ — Phil. 4:11-13.
- II. God's word is all-sufficient for godliness — Tit. 2:11-12.
  - A. Through it we learn who _____ is.
    1. Therefore we stand in awe — Eccl. 12:13.
  - B. We learn how to become His _____ —
Rom. 10:9; Acts 2:38.
  - C. And we learn how to _____ Him — 2 Tim. 3:16-17.

Conc:

1. The abundant life spoken of, and the godly life we are to live, both begin with obedience to Christ.